SPORTS

EVENTS IN THE SQUARED CIRCLE

TO-NIGHT'S EVENTS AT THE HAWAIIAN OPERA HOUSE—BILL HUIHUI AND SULLIVAN MEET.

The boxing carnival at the Opera House to-night promises some interesting events. Interest centers in the contest between Bill Huilul of Honolulu and Dick Sullivan of San Francisco, which is announced for the lightweight championship of the Hawaiian Islands. Huilul's friends think he has a very good chance of reversing the result of their last meet. The contest is to be under straight Marquis of Queensberry rules.

The first event of the evening will be Kahualelo vs. Abe Nelson, the latter of the U. S. S. Iroquois, a heavyweight contest of six rounds.

The second event will be Young Nelson of Punchbowl and Jack McFadden, Champion of Honolulu, a fifteen-round featherweight contest for the championship of the Hawaiian Islands. Nelson and McFadden have to weigh not to exceed 125 pounds at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Sullivan and Huilul are to weigh in at the ringside, 145 pounds.

There is every reason to expect a good line of sport. It has not been fully decided yet who the ring officials will be. Fred Kiley will probably be master of ceremonies and Larry Dee timekeeper. The referee is yet to be chosen.

TO MAKE A HAPPY HOME

COLUMBIA GRAPHOPHONE WILL PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY.

Would you like to have a season ticket to the best entertainment on the boards free of all cost? It's yours without another word if you accept the extraordinary free offer of the Hawaiian Star and secure a $7.50 Columbia Graphophone free with a year's subscription to the paper at the regular rate per month.

Thousands of homes throughout the land have had more happiness and more fun brought into them through Columbia Graphophones than through any other source. Your home can be one of this number.

FOR THE FIELD MEET. Training for the Field Meet on the Boys' Field March 24 continues to be very active. It is said that some startling performances are being made. The Diamond Heads will hold their Sunday practice at Kapiolani Park tomorrow morning.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

The Association football season is drawing to a close. The last games are to be played next Saturday. This afternoon the Males play the Y. M. C. A.'s; and the Diamond Heads play the Punahou. The Males will probably win their game this afternoon, though the Y. M. C. A.'s may not let them. The Diamond Heads are expected to win the second game of the day. The band will be in attendance this afternoon as usual.

Next Saturday the games will be the Diamond Heads vs. Y. M. C. A. and Punahou vs. Iolani.

The standing of the league teams to date is as follows:
